Director’s Message...

Dear Readers,

This issue of DCSN’s magazine is brimming with heart-warming stories and exciting events that have unfolded over the first term.

I would like to start by expressing my sincere gratitude to all our supporters for their unwavering commitment toward our mission. Your dedication has played a significant role in making a positive impact on the lives of our students.

This leads me on to one of the highlights of the year, the success of our Family Winter Fair. A magical day that brought together the DCSN family for a day filled with joy, laughter, and surprises. Our garden was full of visitors bringing the festive spirit. It was heartening to witness the sense of community that permeated the fair, creating lasting memories for everyone involved.

The generosity of everyone was overwhelming and I cannot thank you enough for everything we achieved that day. Yet another spectacular event in our academic calendar was our National Day celebration, an opportunity for our students to showcase their talents, with unending enthusiasm. They presented a patriotic performance that resonated with the spirit of unity and pride in our heritage. Their performances were a testament to the inclusive and nurturing environment that defines our Centre.

I am also proud to share with you a significant achievement for our academic students. After a long journey of hard work and portfolio preparation, their educational journey culminated with them receiving an internationally recognised qualification. They were rewarded with the Bronze and Gold ASDAN certificates.

In collaboration with DHL, another special day was created at DCSN, we had an unexpected visit from former world class football team players from Manchester United. Our students had the unique opportunity to engage in a memorable and unforgettable football experience which brought so much joy to everyone!

As part of our community awareness program, we also regularly host special assemblies, whereby our students perform on stage for our visitors from different companies, other schools or universities. These mornings give our students an opportunity to demonstrate their talents to a wider audience which in turn brings a greater understanding to a wider population.

I hope you enjoy this newsletter and explore further the heart-warming stories, captivating images, and inspiring achievements that showcase the vibrant experiences at DCSN.

Thank you for your continued support, dedication, and believing in our mission.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mahshid Salehi

UAE’s 52nd National Day

Expressing reverence for an extraordinary Nation

Dubai Center for Special Needs celebrated the UAE 52nd National Day with a theatrical performance titled “My Homeland,” performed by male and female students. The event, inspired by the vision of the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan, showcased Emirati heritage and identity through military marches, choral performances, and cultural scenes, including Emirati folk games and Nabati poetry. The festivities concluded with the display of the Emirati flag, a photo session with Dubai Police, and participants enjoying popular Emirati dishes, henna, and coffee in a joyous atmosphere.
